The musical score is arranged for Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass voices, with piano accompaniment. It consists of several systems of staves. The first system shows the vocal entries with lyrics: "Said the night wind to the lit-tle lamb,". The second system features a call-and-response pattern: "Do you see what I see?" followed by "Way up in the sky, lit-tle". The third system continues the call-and-response: "Do you see what I see?" followed by "lamb. Do you see what I see?". The fourth system, marked with a circled 'B' and piano (pp), includes the lyrics: "star, a star, Dan-cing in the night, with a tail as big as a kite,". The fifth system, marked with a circled 'C', contains the lyrics: "tail as big as a kite." and "Said the lit-tle lamb to the shep-herd boy,". The final system concludes with the call-and-response: "Do you hear what I hear?" and "Do you hear what I hear?". Performance directions include dynamics like pp, mf, and mezzo, and markings for unis. (unison) and div. (divisi). A circled 'A' appears at the end of the third system, and a circled 'B' at the start of the fourth system.
